

Projects

Right Here Pictures was founded in 2003 by Brian Harrison. In 2006, Harrison and RHP released their first film, an ultra-low budget project entitled Heroes of World Class, which garnered critical acclaim from both reviewers and audiences everywhere. Harrison, who produced, directed, and wrote the two and a half hour documentary, is also a live event video director. Among his diverse clients are indie rock sensation My Morning Jacket (<http://www.mymorningjacket.com>) and the world renowned Blue Man Group, (www.bluman.com).

Between 2005 and 2008 Harrison was part of the Blue Man Group production team as Associate Video Designer/Director - opening new shows in Stuttgart, Tokyo, Universal Orlando Resorts, Oberhausen, Berlin, Amsterdam, London, Las Vegas, Toronto, and the How to Be a Megastar World Tour.
